Erik Flores and Wagner Chacon two time AFECVOL U-21 Champions

PUERTO JIMENEZ, Costa Rica, September 3, 2017. - Erik Flores and Wagner Chacon of Guatemala won the AFECVOL U-21 Men's Beach Volleyball Central American Championship for the second time at the tenth edition in Playa Preciosa of Puerto Jimenez, Costa Rica.

Erik and Wagner retire from this age-group category winning their second consecutive U-21 championship defeating for the second occasion Denis Lopez and Jefferson Cascante of Nicaragua-1 with a comeback win of 2-1 (18-21, 21-18, 15-12).

Both teams performed with powerful spikes, keen defense and accurate serves. Denis and Jefferson won the first set taking advantage of several consecutive errors by Erik and Wagner who battled strong as points came back and forth. In set two, Erik was able to knockout Nicaragua's concentration with blocking, while Wagner scored on several occasions. Denis and Jefferson weren't able to recover from Guatemala's advantage in set three.

Erik said to be very happy with the victory for Guatemala, "I am very proud to give my country positive news as we are living difficult political moments in Guatemala. I was hoping to reach the gold medal match, for me it had a good level and I am glad to retire from this category as the title holder".

"We want to thank the crowd's support and that of the rest of the teams here, also a special thanks to our families and to everyone back home that makes it possible for us to represent Guatemala. We really enjoyed playing for the gold and move to the next category as champions" said Wagner.

Erik and Wagner also played three sets in their semifinal and also came from behind to defeat Costa Rica-1 of Nicolas Velluti and Fabian Guerra by 2-1 (17-21, 21-10, 15-9). Denis and Jefferson outplayed countrymen Christopher Cascante/Hernán Jiménez 2-0 (21-17, 21-15)

In the bronze medal match, Velluti and Guerra (CRC1) prevailed 2-0 (21-18, 21-17) over Cascante/Jiménez (NCA2).

Erik Flores y Wagner Chacón Bi-Campeones en AFECAVOL U-21 de playa

PUERTO JIMENEZ, Costa Rica, 3 de septiembre de 2017.- Erik Flores y Wagner Chacón de Guatemala se coronaron Bi-Campeones centroamericanos del X Campeonato Centroamericano Sub-21 de Voleibol de Playa Masculino de AFECAVOL en Playa Preciosa de Puerto Jiménez, Costa Rica.

Erik y Wagner se retiran de la categoría juvenil tras ganar su segundo título consecutivo venciendo por segunda ocasión a Denis López y Jefferson Cascante de Nicaragua-1 viniendo de atrás 2-1 (18-21, 21-18, 15-12).

El despliegue de potencia en ataque, la precisión de la defensa y certeza en el servicio se hicieron presente en ambos lados de la cancha. El primer set fue para Denis y Jefferson, que a pesar de que los puntos se repartieron de forma equilibrada, aprovecharon los errores consecutivos de Erik y Wagner. En el segundo parcial, el bloqueo de Erik sacó de concentración al dúo nicaragüense y Wagner aprovechó para anotar en varias ocasiones. Erik y Wagner tomaron una cómoda ventaja en el tercer set que Denis y Jefferson no alcanzaron a reducir.

Erik se mostró muy contento con el triunfo para Guatemala diciendo “me siento muy orgulloso de llevar una buena noticia a Guatemala en estos momentos de inestabilidad política. Esperaba alcanzar de nuevo la final, considero que el juego fue de gran nivel y estoy muy contento de retirarme de la categoría siendo campeón”.

“Agradecemos el apoyo del público y de los demás equipos, asimismo a nuestras familias y a todos los que hacen posible que estemos representando a Guatemala. Disfrutamos jugar el juego por el título y despedirnos con el título” dijo Wagner.

Erik y Wagner también disputaron tres sets en la semifinal, derrotando viniendo de abajo a Costa Rica-1 de Nicolás Velluti y Fabián Guerra por 2-1 (17-21, 21-10, 15-9). Denis y Jefferson dominaron a sus compatriotas Christopher Cascante/Hernán Jiménez 2-0 (21-17, 21-15)

En el juego de la medalla de bronce, Velluti y Guerra (CRC1) se impusieron a Cascante/Jiménez (NCA2) por 2-0 (21-18, 21-17).
