Coaches are ready for the AFECAVOL U21 Men's championship to start

SAN SALVADOR, El Salvador, September 29, 2019.- The seven coaches of the national teams are ready for the AFECAVOL U21 Men's Central American Championship to start at the FESAVOL Volleyball Gymnasium in El Salvador.

Coaches gave their first impressions about the round-robin tournament agreeing that all teams show a similar game level.

Albert Humes, Belize: "It is well documented that at the U21 level, Belize has not been that successful; I think we haven't even won any match. Our intentions are from winning the first game because we have changed our method of training. We've been training since March, which is much different from past years, so we expect to do much better this time".

Sergio Araya, Costa Rica: "This tournament is a challenge for us, despite what you might think, this team is completely renovated from the one of the U19 category that was champion in Panama; from that team we are bringing five players and we are betting on seven new players that showed better level. The boy's performance during the game is uncertain but our goal is to finish in first place".

Alexander Polanco, El Salvador: "This will be an exciting and competitive tournament, very tight according to our observations; I think three countries have the possibility to win the title. As hosts we believe we can reach the podium and even win the gold medal against Costa Rica in our last match".

Reider Lucas, Guatemala: "This is a young age-group category; the boys have little competitive experience. 50% of the team is from a younger category but are glad of their good preparation. We have great expectations in this group for Guatemala's volleyball future. We want to battle one match at a time and have a good outcome".

Osiel Vázquez, Honduras: "Our team has three months of preparation, me and professor José Miguel Angel Paguada incorporated the last month. According to the technical/tactical preparation we believe we can finish in the final four of the tournament. We are aware that the level is similar between all the teams".

Jorge Mena, Nicaragua: "We will fight with all we have; we will try to win a medal. The teams have similar level and I consider that the first two matches (Guatemala and Costa Rica) will be tough and we must finish at least with one victory and not two losses".

Javier Polo, Panama: "My boys come from a good physical, technical and tactical preparation. We hope for a good competition. We are focused on team work and we know they will give their best effort to put our country's name on high. The tournament will be very competitive, there are aggressive opponents and we are looking for the best strategy to neutralize them".

Entrenadores están listos para que inicie el Sub-21 Masculino de AFECVOL

SAN SALVADOR, El Salvador, 29 de septiembre de 2019.- Los entrenadores de las siete selecciones nacionales están listos para que inicie el Campeonato Centroamericano Sub-21 Masculino de AFECVOL en el Gimnasio FESAVOL de Voleibol en El Salvador.

Los entrenadores dieron sus primeras impresiones sobre el torneo de todos contra todos y estuvieron de acuerdo que los equipos muestran un nivel de juego similar.

Albert Humes, Belice: “Está bien documentado que en la categoría Sub-21 Belice no ha tenido éxito; creo que nunca se ha ganado algún juego. Nuestra intención es ganar el primer juego porque hemos cambiado nuestro método de entrenamiento. Hemos estado entrenado desde marzo, algo distinto a lo que hemos hecho en otros años, así que esperamos hacerlo mejor esta vez”.

Sergio Araya, Costa Rica: “El torneo será un reto para nosotros porque contrario a lo que podría pensarse, el equipo es totalmente renovado del venía entrenando en la categoría Sub-19 y que fue campeón en Panamá; de ese equipo traemos cinco jugadores y estamos apostando a siete jugadores nuevos que mostraron mejor nivel. El comportamiento de los muchachos en el juego es una incertidumbre pero le meta está puesta en el primer lugar”.

Alexander Polanco, El Salvador: “El evento será atractivo y de muy buen nivel, muy parejo según nuestras observaciones; considero que hay tres países que mucha posibilidad de llevarse el título. Por ser la sede pensamos que podemos alcanzar el podio e incluso disputar la medalla de oro con Costa Rica en el último juego”.

Reider Lucas, Guatemala: “Es una categoría muy joven, los muchachos tienen poca experiencia competitiva. Nuestro equipo lo conforma un 50% de una categoría inferior pero vienen con contentos de una buena preparación. Es un grupo con muchas perspectivas para el futuro del voleibol en Guatemala. Queremos luchar un partido a la vez y obtener un buen resultado”.

Osiel Vázquez, Honduras: “Nuestro equipo lleva tres meses de preparación, yo me incorporé junto con el profesor José Miguel Angel Paguada en el último mes. De acuerdo a la preparación técnico/táctica, consideramos estar entre los cuatro finalistas del torneo. Sabemos que el nivel entre los equipos es muy parejo”.

Jorge Mena, Nicaragua: “Lucharemos con todo, trataremos de estar en el medallero. Los equipos están parejos y considero que los primeros dos partidos (Guatemala y Costa Rica) serán muy reñidos y debemos de salir por lo menos con una victoria y no dos derrotas”.

Javier Polo, Panamá: “Los muchachos vienen de una buena preparación física, técnica y táctica. Esperamos tener una buena participación. Estamos muy enfocados en el trabajo en equipo y sabemos que harán el mejor esfuerzo para poner en alto el nombre del país. El torneo será bastante competitivo, hay rivales agresivos y estamos buscando la mejor estrategia para neutralizar them”.
