GUATEMALA 2025

Coaches Anticipate a Tight Battle for the Women's Title at the Central American Games

GUATEMALA CITY, Guatemala, October 16, 2025. – Just hours before the start of the women's volleyball competition at the 12th Central American Games Guatemala 2025, coaches predict a close contest for the title.

From October 17 to 21, the Teodoro Palacios Flores Gymnasium will host intense matches in the quest for regional glory.

Bennett Lawrence, Belize Coach: "We came here with hopes of winning gold; hopefully we'll reach that far, but bronze or silver will be fine too. We're going to make sure the girls give their best. We hope to reach the top."

Braulio Godínez, Costa Rica Coach: "We have high expectations for these Games. We've had some setbacks over the past two years, the competition has become very balanced, and we want to reclaim that first place here. That top position is very important to us, and we've come to fight with everything we have. We know we'll face strong teams—Nicaragua, Honduras, Guatemala, and Belize, which has recently dominated the youth categories—so I believe it will be a tough competition. I have faith that what we've prepared will allow us to reach first place."

Dany Calderón, El Salvador Coach: "Our expectation is to fight and advance as far as we can. We have a very young team; we're going through a generational change in the country."

Marvin Ulloa, Honduras Coach: "We're coming off two consecutive third-place finishes with the U23 team, as well as a third place in the Final Four. Some of the players here took part in those events, although we're missing Ana and Rocío. Still, we hope to perform well as a team, put up a fight, and reach the podium."

William Fernández, Guatemala Coach: "This is a very competitive event. We're in a group of four teams, and our goal is to qualify for the semifinals and finish among the top four. We'll give our best in every match."

René Quintana, Nicaragua Coach: "We've brought a team that we hope will fight hard throughout the event and end up rewarded with a place on the podium when the championship concludes."

Reinaldo Ortega, Panama Coach: "We've worked hard with the girls. We have players both from the capital and from the provinces, and we came to make a strong showing, aiming for one of the three podium spots. We know it won't be easy, but we trust in God and in the potential of the girls to make it happen."

Entrenadores anticipan una batalla cerrada por el título femenino de los Juegos Centroamericanos

CIUDAD DE GUATEMALA, Guatemala, 16 de octubre de 2025. – A pocas horas de iniciar la competencia femenina de voleibol en los XII Juegos Centroamericanos Guatemala 2025, los entrenadores prevén una contienda pareja por el título.

Del 17 al 21 de octubre, el Gimnasio Teodoro Palacios Flores será escenario de intensos encuentros por la gloria regional.

Bennett Lawrence, Entrenador de Belice: “Vinimos con la esperanza de ganar la medalla de oro; ojalá lleguemos tan lejos, pero el bronce o la plata también estarán bien. Nos aseguraremos de que las chicas den lo mejor de sí. Esperamos llegar a lo más alto.”

Braulio Godínez, Entrenador de Costa Rica: “Tenemos una gran expectativa en estos Juegos. Hemos tenido algunos tropiezos en los últimos dos años, la competencia se ha nivelado muchísimo y queremos retomar ese primer lugar acá. Es muy importante es primer lugar para nosotros y venimos a luchar con todo. Sabemos que nos enfrentaremos a equipos muy fuertes (Nicaragua, Honduras, Guatemala y Belice que últimamente ha dominado las competencias de categorías menores), por lo tanto, creo que será una competencia muy dura. Tengo fe de que lo que traemos planeado nos permita alcanzar ese primer lugar”.

Dany Calderón, Entrenador de El Salvador: “Nuestra expectativa es luchar y avanzar lo más lejos que podamos. Tenemos un equipo bastante joven, estamos haciendo un cambio generacional en el país”.

Marvin Ulloa, Entrenador de Honduras: “Venimos de obtener dos terceros lugares al hilo con la selección Sub-23, además del tercer lugar en el Final Four, parte de las jugadoras que están acá participaron en estos eventos, aunque nos hace faltan Ana y Rocío, pero esperamos como equipo funcionar, dar batalla y estar en el podio”.

William Fernández, Entrenador de Guatemala: “Este es un evento muy reñido. Estamos en el grupo de cuatro equipos. Nuestro propósito es clasificar a las semifinales y estar entre los cuatro primeros lugares. Daremos todo de sí en cada juego”.

René Quintana, Entrenador de Nicaragua: “Traemos un equipo que esperemos dé la lucha durante todo el evento y que resultemos premiados con estar en el podio a la hora de finalizar el campeonato”.

Reinaldo Ortega, Entrenador de Panamá: “Hemos trabajado bastante con las chicas. Tenemos chicas tanto de la capital como del interior y venimos a hacer una buena representación, buscando alguno de los tres podios de la competencia. Sabemos que no será fácil, pero confiamos en Dios y en el potencial de las chicas que lo podremos lograr”.
