

MEN SAINT LUCIA

NORCECA BEACH WAVE 1

SAINT LUCIA

The charms of St. Lucia begin with the island's dramatic scenery, from the twin Pitons -- the island's conical seaside mountains -- to a simmering volcano and lush rainforest. Scattered resorts -- St. Lucia is far from overdeveloped, although more hotels are being built -- cling to hillsides and protected coves, while locals provide a warm welcome to guests from around the world.

A "drive-through" volcano may sound cheesy, but it's actually a fascinating experience; just make sure the tires on your car don't start to melt! Hiking opportunities abound in St. Lucia's rainforest, but perhaps the most unique vistas are from a zipline through the trees. The twin Pitons offer challenges to fit hikers as well as a stunning backdrop to the island's great beaches, many of which have great scuba and snorkeling just offshore.

The black sand on many of St. Lucia's beaches is a reminder of the island's volcanic past, but St. Lucia also has beautiful white-sand beaches, too. This 'best-of-both-worlds' appeal follows through whether you're in the water or out: the island has placid coves and strands where the surf can range from rough to dangerously forbidding.

Luxury resorts abound on St. Lucia, from the Jalousie Plantation and Anse Chastanet with their beautiful beaches and Pitons views, to Ladera, voted Conde Nast's best Caribbean resorts. All-inclusives also are popular, from the well-known Sandals Halcyon and Regencyresorts to the eco-friendly Discovery at Marigot Bay. A number of former plantation homes have been converted to small hotels and inns, and the island is dotted with private homes and villas that are available to rent.

St. Lucia's original inhabitants were the Arawak Indians, later displaced by the Caribs. The French first colonized the island in the mid-16th century, but the island changed hands more than a dozen times as France and England fought over St. Lucia's natural resources, notably the fine natural harbor at Castries. Today, the island retains some French and English influences, but Creole culture predominates. Nobel Prize winning poet Derek Walcott is a national hero.

St. Lucia isn't particularly known for its nightlife, but restaurants like The Lime keep the party going with The Late Lime, and the weekly Friday night Jump-Up at Gros Islet features home-cooked food and lots of beer and rum (an alternative is the Friday Night Fish Fry at Anse la Reye). Village rum bars are where the locals congregate. Indies and Folley at Rodney Bay Marina in Gros Islet are the best-known dance clubs.

PIGEON POINT BEACH - Pigeon Island is a 40-acre (160,000 m²) islet located in Gros Islet in the northern region of Saint Lucia. Once isolated from the country in the Caribbean Sea, the island was artificially joined to the western coast of mainland in 1972 by a man-made causeway built from dirt excavated to form the Rodney Bay Marina. Composed of two peaks the island is a historic site with numerous forts such as an 18th-century British fort and Fort Rodney both used by the British to spy on French ships from neighbouring Martinique. In 1979 it was named a national park and again in 1992 it became a national landmark under the control of the Saint Lucia National Trust. Today, Pigeon Island is the home and major venue of the Saint Lucia Jazz Festival.

Estimados Atletas:

Saludos ya comenzamos una nueva temporada llena de eventos buenos para todas nuestras Federaciones Nacionales, Atletas, Árbitros, Sedes y Ciudades que cobijan nuestro Tour NORCECA 2015.

Tenemos que estar a la par con nuestra sociedad y debemos como responsabilidad mutua pensar en verde, dado a ello será bien importante que todos obtengan y acarreen consigo el Boletín Número 1 de cada evento que les otorgamos en la Reunión Técnica, los próximos boletines serán enviados vía correo electrónico a cada cual que lo solicite o si recibes ya o te encuentras en los correos del Departamento de Playa NORCECA no tendrás que solicitarlo ya eres parte de las noticias de playa NORCECA; es importante recogerlo antes que abandones la instalación.

Cada viernes y sábado entre 3:30pm y 5:00pm tendremos el calendario diario del próximo día en la sede de competencia por el personal del BVIS listo para tu recogido, es de suma importancia y compromiso que recojas TU cada día el calendario de juegos dado a un cambio oficial y reglamentario en la programación brindada para los próximos partidos.

Estimamos que contaremos con tu apoyo, responsabilidad y comprensión para que todos tengamos un mejor mañana.

Atentamente,

Arnaldo Sánchez

Director Técnico
TOUR NORCECA

Dear Athletes

Regards, already we begin a new season full of good events for all of our national federations, athletes, referees, venues and cities which shelter our Tour NORCECA 2015.

We have to be at par with our society and we have to as a mutual responsibility think in green, due to this it will be very important that all obtain and carry with it the bulletin number 1 of every event that we grant you at the technical meeting, upcoming or next newsletters will be sent via e-mail to everyone who requests it or if you already receive or are ou in emails from the NORCECA Beach Department won't have to request it already you are part of the beach news NORCECA.

Every Friday and Saturday between 3:30 pm and 5:00 pm we will have the daily calendar of next day at the site of competition by the BVIS staff all ready for your collected; it is of utmost or supreme importance and commitment that YOU gather or pick up every day the official schedule if there was a regulatory or official change to last minute, before you left the site.

We think that we will have your support, comprehension, responsibility and understanding so everyone can have a better tomorrow.
